Rooming

New Life Camp has 8 cabins that each sleep 20 people. These cabins are gender-assigned, so there will be boy cabins and girl cabins. The cabins are split into two halves, so 10 people sleep bunk-bed style on each side of the cabin, and we are planning to have 8 campers and 2 leaders on each side. There is no air conditioning in most cabins, but New Life runs full camps 9 weeks out of the summer, so don't let that scare you :) All other facilities do have AC.

Small Group Leaders/Counselors

All our counselors will be from the Summit, undergo Staff Training, and all will be background checked. In fact, many of them are elementary small group leaders on the weekend in Summit Kids!

How do I contact camp while my kid is there?

Parents are encouraged NOT to visit camp for these 3.5 days. It can encourage home-sickness, and not just for your own kid(s). If, for some reason, you must get in touch with your kid during camp, there are two ways you can contact them:

- Our Summit Family Ministry Admin, Jenny Berger, will be with us at camp as well as in the church office during the week. She will be checking her voicemail twice a day and will respond as needed (919) 354-5962. The church office will be able to contact her for more urgent matters at (919) 383-7100.
- A Receptionist is available all throughout the day at New Life Camp: (919) 847-0764.
